

Details of conservation-related projects for which funding was awarded to Wexford County Archive by the Heritage Council

Year of grant	Description of project	Amount awarded
2003	Purchase of acid-free folders, portfolios and custom-made boxes for appropriately housing the Rosbottom collection	€3,000
	Minor repair work and manufacture of individual clamshell acid-free boxes for the 5 earliest municipal burial registers of Wexford Borough Council	€2,500
	Conservation treatment undertaken on 30 bound volumes in the Hore Mss. collection, including the manufacture of 13 acid-free clamshell boxes for loose documents	€9,000

2004	Conservation of a number of bound volumes in the Wexford Harbour Commissioners' collection	€7,000
	Conservation of 11 burial registers for St. Ibar's cemetery, Crosstown and manufacture of custom-made clamshell boxes for each volume	€4,600
2005	Conservation of a number of volumes of Co. Wexford Grand Jury presentments and manufacture of acid-free open-fronted boxes for their storage	€3,500
	Microfilming and digitisation of roll books and daily report books from St. Canice's National School, Rosbercon, New Ross	€2,700
2006	Conservation of 2 registers of baptisms and marriages (1794-1856) for Crossabeg parish and manufacture of two acid-free slip cases	€1,500
	Preservation, microfilming and digitisation of extant registers of births,	€2,500

marriages and confirmations for Rosbercon parish, New Ross

2007	Conservation of 17 volumes of Wexford County Council minutes	€4,000
2009	Repair and restoration of 11 parish registers from the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rowe Street	€4,500
2010	Conservation work on a number of textiles from the collection of the former Wexford County Museum	€4,000
2011	Conservator by a textile conservator of a lace fan leaf from the Mount Carmel lace collection, New Ross and purchase of a number of large custom-made acid-free boxes for storing paper patterns	€1,600