in that Circular Letter

The following Letters from the Poor Law Commissioners and others were read by the Clerk, and directions given to answer them, respectively, to the following effect (or Orders made on them respectively as follows):-

Ordinary Proceedings

The Board proceeded with the adoption of plans to relief in the Workhouse and Fever Hospital of the Union - also to outdoor Relief in certain cases.

Mr. Crookman brought under the notice of the Board the Complaint of Thomas Breen Workman on the farm in Stacering to the identity of the Hay lately stolen from the Hayrick on the Workhouse grounds - in his original Informations - but when the Case came on for hearing before the Magistrates he refused to identify the Hay at all - and when his attention was called to the discrepancy he still persisted in the denial of his previously sworn Information - in consequence of which the Board unanimously resolved to consider the Subject on this day fortnight with a view to his dismissal from the employment of the Board - the Clerk gave him notice.

A Letter was read from Mr Murphy stating that on the instruction of the Board he examined the work done by James Moore and found that the Plastering of the Schools is properly done - the side flashings of the Rectifiers are of Tin not of Lead as those of the Straw Sheds. The Weather Slating is not equal to the other work done on the Building there being several Courses of Slates inferior in size and not having sufficient cover.

Ordered. The Board refuse to sanction any of the work done by James Moore until first examined and certified by Mr Murphy.

The Master made application to the Board for permission for his wife to live with him.

Ordered. Leave granted.

The following Letter was read Wexford March 23<sup>d</sup> 1865.

Sir

We beg to let you know that on last year we applied to the Board for vegetables. The gentlemen kindly gave from me the small plot near the Cottage. We wish to know if the same plot is to be sown this year for our use, or shall we be allowed vegetables grown on any other part of the Farm.

Signed
John Mayne - Schoolmaster
Margt. H. Harris. Schoolmistress
Catherine Masser. Nurse.
Mary Henry. ~~Master~~
John Farrell.

To Mr. Masteram
Master

The Bonds and other securities in force were laid before the Guardians by the Clerk, together with his Report thereon, as follows: (this on the second Meeting after the Annual Election in every year.)

Ordered. That the land be put under cultivation for vegetables as before and that none be cut by the Officers but under the supervision of the Master.

Report of Agricultural Committee

The Committee recommended that a new boundary ditch be made on the North side of the Wexford ground - the fence to have 6 feet of stone work from the ground upwards to be 6 feet in width at bottom and 4 feet at top. Two rows of good thorns to be put in the front and one row on the top, and that the parties in possession of the land outside be notified to send men to face the ditch at their side. The last 4 yards of the present fence to be a pattern for the new one.

Signed W. Cookman

Ordered. Advertisements to issue for Tenders to make the fence on the Guardians side. Stones to be laid down for the Contractor and the Soil to be thrown out from under the ditch to the Yellow by the Contractor. Height to be 6 feet. The Master to frame a copy of advertisement this evening to be printed and posted tomorrow. The removal of the fence by Mr Cosgrove to be referred to the Solicitor to report thereon by next Board day. The Clerk to give notice to the parties adjoining to build their side.

Mr Cullen Guardian for Clonroche aguably to notice had the Chargeability of Leatham and Bridget Burke brought under Consideration — after which it was found that they should have been charged on the Union of Large and the Master was directed to alter the Register accordingly.

The cases of provisional relief, and applications for relief, were considered and decided on, as set forth in the Application and Report Books.
