Notice of resolutions to be proposed on 8th March by James Moffat for adoption by Ennis County Board of Guardians.

subject to approval of local government board, that no resolution agreed to by the Board of Guardians either by a majority consisting of not less than twenty, or by an unanimous vote of equal number, shall be rescinded, altered, or amended by a smaller board, or a smaller number of votes, except in pursuance of an order, regulation, or request of the Local Government Board.

second resolution

That the resolution of 3rd August 1882 prohibiting the Clerk from supplying Mr. Griffith (proprietor of the Watchman newspaper) or any representative of his with the minutes of the proceedings of this board, and also prohibiting any reporter for that newspaper from attending the board, be rescinded, and that the boardroom henceforth be open during meetings of the board, to recognised reporters of all established newspapers as long as they faithfully report the proceedings.

The board regrets that a few guardians should, in the resolution of 3rd Aug<sup>t</sup>, have used its name to insult a respectable ratepayer and tradesman, who for a long period had efficiently and economically reported its proceedings and performed its printing business.
