Re Imprisonment of

Messrs O'Brien & Gilhooly M.P.s

Proposed by Mr O'Connor
Seconded " " Fortune

and passed unanimously

"That we earnestly protest against the fresh indignity inflicted upon Mr. William O'Brien, M.P., and his noble confrere, Mr. Gilhooly, M.P., by the Removables at Clonakilty, one of whom, Irwin, admitted that the evidence was not sufficient to prove the charge of the Government. That we look upon the action of the Executive in sentencing our noble representatives to a long term of imprisonment on the testimony of an ignorant and inefficient police reporter as a base and flagrant injustice quite in keeping with Balfour's Coercion policy. That we earnestly congratulate Messrs O'Brien and Gilhooly on the readiness with which they have accepted this further sacrifice for the cause of a suffering people. We emphatically denounce the two Removables who carried out the order of their masters in shielding from prosecution a perjured policeman."

6th Sept 1889

At a meeting of the Board of Guardians of the above union, held on Thursday, 8th August, 1889—present—Messrs. John Flynn (in the chair), Jonathan Haughton, Thomas Hayes, Moses Kearns, Patrick Connolly, John Darcy, Gregory Murphy, James Gallaher, Francis Whelan, H. H. O'Neill, John Mernagh, O. Doyle, Ferdinand Murphy, John Fortune, John Connors, N. P. Roche, Wm. Atkinson, Peter Tobin, M. Herron, Henry Goodisson—it was proposed by Mr. Gregory Murphy, seconded by Mr. Moses Kearns, and passed by acclamation—"That we, the guardians of the Enniscorthy Union, beg to tender to the fearless, faithful and uncompromising champion of our country's cause, the venerable Very Rev. Canon Doyle, P.P., Ramsgrange, his curate, Father Browne, and their co-defendants in the recent Arthurstown Coercion prosecutions, our sincere congratulation in their triumphant victory over their base and brutal prosecutors under the Balfour regime, initiated as the prosecution was under a loathsome inquiry before two of his Removable minions, carrying with it thoughts of our worst penal enactments, which we had hoped were dead and buried years ago. We are proud to know that in our Model County we have no man so degraded as, by becoming an informer, would place the venerated head of our soggarth aroon to recline for the last years of his life in a dungeon with the lowest criminals of the land; and we pledge ourselves to abide by his counsel and advice, tempered in the 'land agitation' as it has been, with moderation, justice, and equity."

And Ordered to be placed on the minute
according

plementary resolution regarding the defeat of the Government in the late Arthurstown prosecutions. We are told in the Acts of the Apostles that "They went out from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were accounted worthy to suffer reproach for the name of Christ." The next best thing to be done is, "to suffer reproach" for the wronged and outraged poor of Christ. This "council" was composed of men not unlike the wretched gang who are now invested with authority to crush and oppress our poor people—men who centre all their affections in the riches and enjoyments of this life, practically deny a future state, and die without a vestige of hope beyond the grave. They "scourged" and imprisoned the Apostles "in the common jail" for no crime on earth but for simply preaching the truth. Why is it sought to bring down the grey hairs of the honest David Foley and of his aged wife in sorrow to the grave? Why is the extensive farm, reclaimed from the prairie state by the sweat of his brow, now desolate, and the comfortable homestead, built by his labour and toil, dismantled and ruined? Why was his beloved, manly and upright son, with thirty of his respectable relatives and neighbours, sent to the common jail to herd with pickpockets and the most depraved criminals? Simply because of a just demand—a demand pronounced just not merely by their friends, but emphatically by the officers of the law—the officials of the Castle! Why was it sought to imprison Father Browne, a number of decent men, and myself in "the common jail"? Because it was supposed we advised David Foley and his fellow-tenants to insist on a demand considered fair and moderate even by the very men who were sent to execute the law, and who must be more or less influenced against us by associations and class prejudice. Why were that great and good man, Mr. Wm. O'Brien, and his fellow member of Parliament doomed but yesterday to imprisonment "in the common jail" with the lowest criminals in the land? A number of wicked Irish landlords and English millionaires entered into a diabolical conspiracy to evict a multitude of honest tenants, and to desolate the country for miles. Mr. O'Brien advised the tenants to combine in self-defence. The very high priest of the infamous regime under which we groan declared this course right and proper. Yet Mr. O'Brien, for having advised this most natural, just, and proper course is to spend four months in "the common jail." "However," says Removable Irwin, unctiously, "that is the law, and we magistrates are bound to obey the law, whether that law be a good law or a bad law, a just law or an unjust law." And he piously fortifies himself by the definition ex-cathedra of Chief Baron Palles. Why is this man "clothed in purple and fine linen," and carrying on his shoulders the ermine-symbol of purity and truth, suffered unreprieved to preach false doctrine from the very seat of justice? The great St. Thomas—"the Angel of the Schools"—a man admitted even by those outside the Church, to have possessed one of the greatest and most comprehensive intellects the world has ever produced, says, "an unjust law is not law, but a corruption of law"—"corruptio legis." Yet the angel of the Four Courts (it seems a very pious man) declares we are bound to obey "a corruption of law," and that judges are bound to administer "a corruption of law!" Pontius Pilate said, "I find no cause in this just man, do you look to it," and he sought to wash his hands out of the dreadful business. Pontius Palles says, I see no cause why these honest, upright tenants should be evicted—why "sentence of death" should be pronounced on them, yet I hand them over to the executioners. For the life of me I cannot see the difference between Pilate and Palles, except greatly in favour of the former. Pilate condemned and disapproved of the wickedness and sought to wash his hands out of it. Palles aids and abets the guilty conduct of the oppressors and destroyers of the poor—he signs writs and warrants for the destruction of countless innocent children, and so far from being ashamed of his unholy ministry, and of trying to wash the crimson stain from his hands, he ascends to his richly furnished oratory, and from his luxurious prie dieu, raises his eyes to heaven and thanks God he is not like the rest of men. Pilate was chief governor of Judea and was afraid of losing his position and the friendship of Caesar. Palles is chief baron of the Exchequer, and is afraid to lose five thousand a year, paid quarterly, and his extra to the Castle. Pilate weakly permitted the Jews to commit a crime the real guilt of which they did not know—"they know not what they do." Palles not merely tolerates but actively and efficiently aids and abets a crime—the oppression of the poor, which cries to heaven for vengeance. "I was hungry and you gave me not to eat. I was thirsty and you gave me not to drink. I was naked and you did not clothe me. I was sick and in prison and you did not visit me." Eh! There is not one word here about evicting the poor, about trampling on the poor, about crushing the poor, about "grinding the faces of the poor," about scattering the poor to the four winds of heaven, about sweeping the poor like vermin from the land, and driving innocent little boys and girls into the back lanes, slums and hells, of London, Liverpool and New York. If those who only regard the poor as doomed to eternal punishment, would but all the while be thinking of the poor, their hairs and bones descend. I do not know Chief Baron Palles' opinion on the subject.

Claim against Mr Halldare
Sewer at Newtownbarry

Stating - That in the absence of Agreement, there is no liability on either owners or occupiers for the expenses incurred by the Sanitary Authority in the execution of Sanitary works, &c. &c. re.

I understand that none of the steps necessary to create the Statutory liability under the Public Health Act were taken, before making the sewer.

I am therefore clearly of opinion that Mr Halldare cannot be made liable in any form of Proceeding for the Expenses in question.
