From the circumstances attending her removal they had suspicions that some foul play was contemplated against the child's faith, and having made enquiries, they state with the greatest alarm, that the child was delivered over to the custody of a protestant and they entertain the most serious apprehensions that the result will be the loss of the child's religion. Both the parents of the child were Roman Catholics and died such and she herself up to this has been always brought up in the same religion

The following Orders of the Poor Law Commissioners were laid before the Board, and directions given thereon, as follows:

No Orders—

The following Letters from the Poor Law Commissioners and others were read by the Clerk, and directions given to answer them respectively, to the following effect, (or Orders made on them respectively as follows:)

The Labour Committee are requested to meet at 10 o'clock next Saturday to report on the Poor Law Commissioners plan for making the Fever Hospital —

The names of one Guardian and those of two of the officers of the house are freely mentioned as implicated in this transaction. The excitement out of doors on this subject is intense as it is generally believed that similar attempts with similar results have been made in several other Workhouses throughout Ireland. May I then request the Board to enquire into the truth of those statements and should they ascertain them to be facts to rectify the evil and forever prevent the recurrence of similar acts. This will restore the confidence of the public in the equitable government of the house.

James Laan

The Commissioners attention is particularly requested to the above report.
