"A majority of the Labor Committee having inspected
"the new building this day, report that it does not appear

"it is likely to fall. Although the walls are unquestionably
"far out of the right line, especially the Outer wall (or
"Southern,) which seems to incline inwards more than the
"opposite wall does outwards, still there is no satisfactory
"proof that any increase of the sinkage has taken place since
"the buttress was added to the defective part 4 years ago, but
"that buttress seems to do its duty perfectly, no crack being
"visible in the cement extending over the junction between
"the original wall and the buttress. Mr Bates, one of "the Committee, offered to pay the full present value for the
"materials of the roof in the event of its falling within
"30 years. Mr O'Shaughnessy dissented from the opinion
"of the other members.

I expect the Board will be kind enough to order a better quality, as I cannot allow Sea to be given to the Patients, which I consider unwholesome.

Number of successful cases,

The Report of the Visiting Committee was read, and Orders were made thereon as follows:

The Report of the Master and other Officers ^{was} read and Orders made thereon as follows:

"September 22nd 1850. — Gen. Hemen, in reply, to the Clerk's report last Board day stating that I consumed 14 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ stones of Soap during the year ending the 1st inst., and that the average daily number was 259, which, at the allowance of 1 stone weekly for every 100 inmates, as per minute of 29 January 1853, from which it appears that 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ stone of Soap have been consumed over said allowance — I beg to state that in 1853 the numbers of infirm and in Hospitals were one fourth, that now the Workhouse has become more an Hospital, and that half the numbers are infirm and sick and consequently will require a larger proportion of Soap. — Yet with 76 deaths during the year and the very cheapest quality of Soap I have only consumed (weekly) 15 $\frac{1}{4}$ lbs for every 100 inmates. It requires very great experience to know the quantity of washing done in a Workhouse so as to keep it clean. I have the honor, &c.

— Considered satisfactory. John Middleton.
