Ordinary Proceedings

The Chairman stated that he had received a Letter from Mr. John Ralph Newcomb to Complain that a Letter addressed by him to the Board had not been taken notice of. In which he stated that several houses marked on the Collector's Book as unoccupied had been occupied during the last 2 years. On reference to the Clerk the letter was read and referred to the Guardians of Newcomb Division to seek information and report thereon. Subsequently one of the Guardians for that Division had the Collector called up and both examined the New Date Book after which the Guardian reported that there appeared to be no house entered as unoccupied which was not so. That Mr. Ralph had the opportunity afforded all Rate payers to inspect the Books for 14 days previous to making the Rates in each year besides that given by the Divisional Officer who attended in Newcomb last February.

On the admission of applicants for which a female of dissolute character appeared. And on examination being reported Mr. Doyle moved that the Master furnish a specification by this day week of the probable Cost of such attention in the District Ward as will give accommodation to dissolute females who may be admitted by the Board.
