The Chairman signed the abstracts of the Union Accounts for the 2nd year ended 25th March 1846 - which had been previously signed by the Auditor at the termination of the Audit on the 13th Instant.

The P. Chaplain having entered on the Chaplains Book the following observations - viz

That on visiting the Hospital he found was very much surprised to find that the Roman Catholic Chaplain had been brought there by the Master and Rebaptised there an Infant of little more than 10 years old without any intimation having been given to me or to Mr. Hickey who officiated for me in my absence - although a Board Day has passed since the occurrence and presume no application was made to the Guardians by the Master on the subject or to have the Register changed.

The Master was examined and reprimanded for not having reported the case to the Board on the last day of Meeting - At same time the Chairman and

And Mr. G. P. Richards visited the Pauper in the Infirmary - found her an intelligent child labouring under a bad case of abscess in the side examined her as to her interview with the Roman Catholic Chaplain also if any undue influence had been used to induce her to request his attendance all what Religious attention she had received previously - she seems not to have had any interview with the Protestant Chaplain for a long time and that the strong desire to be of the Religion of her Mother and her reputed Uncle had induced her to send for the Roman Catholic Chaplain and to be received into the Roman Catholic Church.

Mr. & J. Martin inmates were ordered to be discharged and readmitted upon the Union at Large.

The Annual Report of the Auditor upon the Security of Officers was read - and Mr. White D. B. C. stated that the Clerk's bond was in his possession. Also a letter from the Auditor stating that Collector D. Nolan had neglected to attend the audit though having received notice to do so in explanation of which a letter was read from D. Nolan stating that appointments made previous to the notice to meet the inhabitants of Acor-tain District in his collection for that day for the purpose of receiving the several rates due in that district had alone prevented his attendance on the audit.
