That the thanks of this Board are due and hereby given to the Guardians who remained after the usual business of the day on the 30th 1846 to examine the samples of clothing and who selected the best value then before them without fear, favour or affection - a labour that some unwarys determined to escape when they had in shops & friends to patronise for the sale of prize or fine clothing to put in a lot of complaints and we dare any man be the Guardian or not who thenceforth with the view of some of it sticking in the character of those Guardians who had the courage to do their duty to the ratepayers of the Union on that day. We really pity the Guardian who can make himself the tool of any Contractor who when disappointed casts by a side wind to bring down honest minded men to a level with himself and we therefore resolve that no document put forward for such a purpose by any Guardian shall receive consideration from this Board.
