Mr Edward Doyle put in the following explanation in reply to the Commissioners reply Letter read last Board day which was ordered to be placed on the Minutes,

Gentlemen

I beg leave to state that I have been called on by the Clerk of the Union to give a written explanation to the Board respecting my having left the names of dead persons to remain on the Books for several years in my Collection - and as the Returning Officer have made that report to the Commissioners relating to the last Election of Guardians for

Rossard Division. I beg to state for the information of the Guardians that during my last 11 years Collection I never omitted any persons name who told me to have it altered when paying their poor rates and with regard to the names he refers to - Edward Leary, Michael Jordan, Catherine Doyle and Timothy Nolan. I asked the parties belonging to them when paying the rates what name would be returned and they always told me the same name that was on the Book. I told this to the Returning Officer when I was making out the list of voters for Rossard. I also state with regard to Mr Edward Doran of Wheelagom that his father told me that his son Edward was the name to be placed on the Book as his uncle had left him the place in Wheelagom and that there was no occasion for a revision and then the Returning Officer entered on the voters list Edward or Justin Doran

I hope Gentlemen if I have done anything wrong you will be kind enough to excuse me as I have not done anything intentionally but could not change the names on the Books when I was not properly instructed by the persons who paid the rates or who was to represent the dead person - I told all these facts to the Returning Officer when getting out the list of voters for Rossard and I left it to his own judgment who he would return for the voters

Signed, Edw Doyle: Collector
