Mr. Rynhart P. L.
Miss O'Farrell

The following resolution was adopted

I propose a vote of censure on the vicious, pusillanimous, and shallow-minded member (Mr. Rynhart) who brought a charge against a certain Lady of this town - as intimidating Mr.
O'Farrell to vote for a certain officer of this Board - such a statement being unwarranted, uncalled for, unmanly, and fallacious. The fact of Mr. Rynhart apol-ogising and withdrawing his expression distinctly shows that his statement was cowardly, bigoted, and untrue - and also as it has gone before the public as (per the Newspaper report) the proceedings of this Board - We the Members do emphatically condemn such acts to be brought before us on such a charitable and patriotic Lady - who during the late agitation spared no labour in forwarding the cause of the poor tenant farmers of Ireland to gain their just rights. We the Omiscorthy Board of Guardians could not expect such a saying from any one - save one of the most bitter enemies of our impoverished, lawless, and depressed country - who detest and despise anything Irish or Nationalist. Gregory, Murphy & Power
