Labourers Act Cont'd.

The following resolution p. R. Bomer & J. Russell was adopted

Resolved - That we the Ennisorthy Board of guardians look upon the Labourers (Ireland) Act as being altogether defective, because leaving in the hands of grasping and avaricious tenant farmers the power to evict the present occupying cottiers, at their whim from their miserable holds.
We hereby pronounce such conduct as the basest ingratitude to the men who stood in the gap during the late agitation raising the glorious cry of "The Land for the people". We now call on our County and Borough members (the latter whom we wish a happy return from their sojourn in the Antipodes) to urge upon Mr. J. P. O'Connor M.P. and the Irish Parliamentary Party the necessity of having the Act so amended that the eviction of a labouring man will be unheard of in Ireland in the future.

The following Resolutions were then adopted

Proposed by Mr H Rynhart, seconded by Mr R Power and passed—That this Board wish to convey to Mr Deady, manager of the National Bank, our warmest thanks and gratitude for the courteous manner in which he received our committee on last Thursday, and also for his generosity in cashing the cheque for out-door relief. And we condemn in the strongest manner the originators of some rumours purporting that it was Mr Deady who dishonoured the cheques on his own responsibility. And we propose that a copy of this resolution be handed to Mr Deady by one of the members of the Board, and a copy also be transmitted to the Directors of the National Bank by our Clerk.

Proposed by Mr Francis Cullen, seconded by Mr Thomas Merna, and passed—That the Board of Guardians call upon the Collectors to collect the rates energetically, as the Union is at present in a very unsatisfactory state as regards its financial condition, (as the committee appointed on Thursday last made a promise to the manager of the National Bank that the Board of Guardians would have, before many weeks, a balance to their credit.) Also that our clerk is directed to report fortnightly to the Board any Collector who will not lodge within a fortnight until the collection is closed.
