Clerk's Report

Having completed all my duties for the year under the "Parliamentary Voters Act," I beg to ask the Board for the usual ordinary grant annually accorded me heretofore viz £ 25/.

This, of course, involves no payment for the immense amount of extra-work imposed on me by the new Franchise Act, as I am informed that the Local Government Board "will give remuneration for such, from the funds at their disposal granted by Parliament for the purpose, when sufficient statistics can be placed at their command to form scales of payment for the several officers employed under the act"
