 Messrs Redmond, Mr

 Nathan Harvelly Clarke

Mr. Whitty proposed, and Mr. Roche seconded the following, which was adopted:—

That we condemn in the most emphatic manner the mean and cowardly action of the Tory Government in imprisoning our trusted and faithful representative, Mr. John E. Redmond, M.P., for denouncing the oppression, and telling the people how by constitutional methods they can cope with their enemies. We express our sympathy with him, and are determined to uphold the doctrine which he and our leaders have taught.

Proposed by Mr. Johnson, seconded by Mr. Tobin, and passed unanimously:—

That we express the indignation which we feel at the sentences imposed on Father Farrelly and Father Clarke by Balfour's Removables, at the instigation of those whose tyranny they had so justly condemned.

Inspector's Half Yearly Report

The C^o. appointed to consider this
Reported, as follows,

Sir—Your committee appointed to consider the Inspector's report met this day at 12 o'clock. Present—Messrs. Johnson, Kenny, Whitty, and Hennessey. We recommend the board to advertise for one hundred pairs of shoes as there are none in stock, and the inmates are very much in want of a new supply. We are of opinion that two competent tradesmen should be able to keep the house supplied in shoes. We therefore consider that the present master shoemaker receive due notice that his services be no longer required. The master to have the slating done and the locks repaired, and as regards the lavatory, we recommend that the Inspector's suggestion be carried out. The master to have the milk analysed if not improved. We recommend that the Inspector's suggestion be carried out as regards the children seeing their mothers for half an hour each day after dinner or after school hours in the dining hall, and that the matron keep the women in their proper place and not allow them to interfere with the children outside the half hour's visit.

Ordered—The recommendations of the C^o. are unanimously adopted "
