June
Canon Doyle

" Dr. Cardiff's Circular "

P. J. McKeam 2nd of Arris and adapted
Mem con

"That on behalf of ourselves and the ratepayers whom we represent, this board condemns in the strongest manner, the mean, cowardly, and unchristianable act, which has been attributed to Dr. Cardiff, of Carrigbyrne, and coroner for South Wexford, in grievously insulting one of the best beloved priests in Ireland—a dignitary of the Catholic Church—who for nearly half a century has been unceasing in his efforts in endeavouring to redress the long standing and oppressive grievances of his people; and as a true type of the kind, genial, and self-sacrificing Soggarth Aroon, who has been ever ready to comfort and console them in their trials and tribulations, thereby increasing his influence for their spiritual good, by his deep and earnest sympathy with them in their temporal afflictions, which has endeared him to the hearts of the Irish race the world over. We, therefore, most respectfully beg to tender to the Very Rev and Venerable Canon Doyle, P. P., Ramsgrange, our heartfelt sympathy for the unpardonable insult which has been offered to him, and also to two such able and faithful members of the Irish Parliamentary Party as Messrs. Barry and Healy, M.P.'s, and the other gentlemen referred to in the vile production which only appeared in the local papers last week, but which was previously circulated through different parts of the county, and has now caused such intense pain throughout this union and elsewhere, that on the first opportunity—let it be sooner or later—prompt satisfaction shall be exacted from the degraded perpetrator of the infamous production."

Passed unanimously.
