Some time since she received special directions from them, not to leave the Workhouse premises without his permission, and on no occasion to be absent from the Children's Meals.

Since then more than once when the Master happened to be out, she took the opportunity of going out without acquainting either the Matron or Assistant Master, on being checked for this she promised it should not be repeated.

More than once on Sundays when she got permission to go out in the morning she did not return till night, a few Sundays since after she returned the Master told her if ever she remained out again so he would bring the matter before the Board, she promised not.

On last Sunday she got permission to go out about 11 1/2 o'clock she
