25th Feby 1874 - Examined the Schools this day & report as follows
In the boy's School one boy only is far enough advanced to be in the "Sequel Book"
In Arithmetic as far as compound addition the answering was good & the sums were finished accurately - The reading was good. More attention is required to be given by the Teacher to punctuation.
In the Girls' School three girls are advanced enough to be in the third Reading Book & in it they read well & made fair replies to questions in Grammar, but were deficient in punctuation - The Arithmetic questions were well answered - Geography tolerable.
The attention of the Guardians is requested to the state of School table & chair, both of which are barely holding together
William Atkins

We recommend a common Kitchen chair for female School, the table to be repaired that the ledge be mended & the infant children be seated at it during School hours, that the old desk be put in order & so placed that School girls may face the Teacher

Members present: M^r. Ellis, J.P. in the Chair

Mess^{rs}. McDaniel, Wolahan, Morris. In consequence of the death of M^r. Fowler the late Keeper of the Dispensary. It was moved by M^r. Ellis & seconded by M^r. Wolahan & passed that her daughter named Julia Fowler be substituted in her place, she now being the owner of the house, her salary to be the same as her Mother's. Approved

Minutes of Meeting held at Killenagh Dispensary March 2^d - 1874 Present J. C. Ponsden Esq. Ch. Mess^{rs}. J. H. Burkitt, G. Murphy, R. Rowe, M. Smith, J. McGrath & W. B. Porter.

Minutes of last meeting read & signed, also signed Medical Relief Register. Proposed by M^r. Rowe & seconded by M^r. Murphy. That the services of the Midwife do not appear to be made use of as much as was expected. That if the Doctor had power to compel the attendance of the Midwife her presence would be of much importance & there is a necessity for a qualified Midwife in the district. That the Board of Guardians be requested to inform the Committee whether the Doctor can order the attendance of the Midwife in any case where he may receive a ticket to attend order. - The L. G. Board will advise as to the Doctor's responsibility & power to procure & compel patients to accept the attendance of the Midwife.

D^r Bestall

dated Cambridge 19 June 1874

Sir— With reference to your communication of the 15th inst relative to my alleged neglect in not continuing my attendance on M^{rs} Doyle, I beg to state that I attended on M^{rs} Kinsella's Ticket & prescribed the necessary medicine for her & would have continued my attendance only that D^r Weldon took charge of the case & left his nurse to attend on her, under those circumstances I thought I was relieved from any further attendance, I beg to add it was not to save trouble on my part I discontinued but simply for the reasons above stated, I would be very sorry there should be any complaints as I have been in attendance for the last ten years & this has been the first case ever complained of, hoping this explanation will be satisfactory

I am, yours truly, A Bestall

P. S. When I saw the messenger on Sunday evening it was between 9 & 10 o'c P.M. he told me that M^{rs} Doyle had been a great deal better until that day about 11 o'c A.M. She had then got a pain in her head & from his statement I did not think it necessary to visit her until next morning

Order— The Board having read D^r Bestall's letter & fully discussed the matter, it was unanimously resolved that D^r Bestall's explanation is considered satisfactory
