The following resolutions were adopted:—

Proposed by D. V. Beatty, Esq., and seconded by N. N. Cookman, Esq.,—That our representative cesspayer at the Sessions for the County at Large be requested to oppose the passing of the presentment for the purchase of the Tolls of Ferrycarrig bridge at the price named in Schedule, in view of the probable depreciation of its value, likely to follow the opening of the railway to Wexford, now so near completion.

Resolved—That the state of the roads intersected by the railway at Macmine, Clonmore, Ballybrennan, Chapel. Fortune's Cross, Ballinvegga, Moll-in-the-Wadds, Palace, and Ballywilliam, is most dangerous, and that the special attention of the engineers and traffic managers of the line be directed to the fact, with a view to effecting a proper state of repair before any serious accident occurs to the public.

H. ALCOCK, Chairman.
