4th July 1874

In compliance with the instructions given me by the Board of Guardians on Saturday last relative to the Nuisance complained of by Mr. Geoghegan. I have to state that I waited on him and had also an interview with Mr. Richards the owner of the property in question who expressed his willingness to take measures in Nov<sup>r</sup> next when the property comes into his possession to abate the nuisance if the Guardians will assist in cleaning up the bed of the river. Mr. Geoghegan strongly remonstrated with Mr. Richards against any further delay. the stench from the place being such as to injure the health of himself and family and requested me to ask the Guardians to have the nuisance removed forthwith.

A woman named Eliza Griffin aged 18 years was brought here on yesterday by her mother from Abbey Street Wexford and died immediately after admission. I allowed the mother to take the Body after procuring medical Certificate believing it unnecessary to have a Coroner's Inquest.

Aug. 13th 1874.

Visited the various parts of the Workhouse today, and found them in a clean orderly and satisfactory state. Aug 22/1874

Visited all parts of the House thoroughly this day including the Hospital, School, Old men's and women's wards some of the latter appear very weak and we are of opinion the Doctor should occasionally be requested to visit the infirm wards in order if ~~convenient~~ necessary to have some of them exchanged with convalescents in the Hospital. The House in every particular cannot be in better order. The scullery is ready for the reception of soap. Signed: John Walsh.

That the Local Government Board be informed that the Guardians have assessed on the Union for the ensuing year as much money as will be expended for the year ending 29th September next. and that with an abundant Potatoe crop and good Corn crops this year throughout the Union the Guardians feel satisfied that there will not be at all so much pressure on the Rates of the Union this year as in the preceding one. and that the debt which they at present owe will be considerably lessened this time twelve months.

They wish further to observe that credit has not been given to them for the amount of "Medical and Educational Grant" and that the value of Clothing lessens their liabilities to the extent of £1000.

The Guardians will moreover if necessary for the requirements of the Union strike a Supplemental Rate but they are at present convinced that the amount of Rate agreed to will leave the Union financially in a better position this time next year than it is at present.
